In order to accommodate the rise in the number of patients in the city, the civic chief asked to reopen closed COVID-19 Care Centre (CCC) for at least 800 to 1,000 people. At present, with a capacity of 1,200 beds, the CCC at City and Industrial Development Corporation (CIDCO) Exhibition Center is operational. In addition, two COVID-19 Care Centers should be reserved for women. The number of beds should also be increased in the Maternal and Child Hospital at Belapur, which is functioning for COVID-19 pregnant women. Considering the need to increase the rate of vaccination while effectively implementing COVID-19 preventive measures, the civic chief directed officials to keep the vaccination drive at civic health centers operational seven days a week instead of five days a week.

KDMC may increase its testing capacity

PRIYANKA DHOMSE | Thane

Kalyan-Dombivli Municipal Corporation (KDMC) may increase its testing capacity for COVID-19 considering the daily rise in the recorded positive cases. "At present, KDMC has a capacity to conduct 3,500 to 4000 tests daily. However, considering the rise in the positive cases, we may increase it by 1,000 daily. At the initial stage, the testing capacity was around 1,300 daily. Slowly, we increased it to around 4,000," said Dr Pratibha Panpatil, epidemic officer, KDMC.

"Besides this, to curb the spread of the virus, hotels, restaurants and bars owners in the city have been directed to conduct COVID-19 tests of their staff and accordingly report to KDMC," added Panpatil.

KDMC, at present, has 32 testing centres. Around 35 areas in Kalyan and Dombivli have been announced as hotspots, informed a KDMC official. On Tuesday, the daily positive cases in KDMC witnessed a rise in the cases. A total of 711 new cases were detected, while three deaths were reported (on Tuesday). At present, 5,459 cases are active. So far, 65,281 patients have been recovered from the virus and 1,231 deaths have been reported in Kalyan and Dombivli.

AMIT SRIVASTAVA | Navi Mumbai

The City and Industrial Development Corporation (CID-CO) has directed all the schools to whom plots have been allotted for a playground to be kept open after school hours for public use. The planning agency warned of strict action if schools are found not following the agreement on which they were allotted the plot.

The planning agency observed that many schools in Navi Mumbai do not keep the playgrounds open after school hours and on weekends and public holidays. "As per the agreement made by CIDCO with the schools, it is mandatory for school hours and on weekends. A school in Koparkhairane had even put the schools to open the school up a board to prohibit people grounds to the general public from entering though the after school hours and on the land was given to schools at a weekend and public holsubsidised rate.
